LAW SCHOOL ADMISSION TEST DATES ANNOUNCED

All persons wishing to apply for fall 1968 admission to the University of Montana Law School, are urged to register for the November or February Law School Admission Test.

The LSAT will be administered during 1967-68 on Saturday, Nov. 11, Saturday, Feb. 10, Saturday, April 6 and Saturday, August 3. The LSAT is required for all applicants for most law schools.

The Educational Testing Service administers the test for the Law School Admission Test Council which is composed of representatives of most American law schools.

The test occupies a full day. It is divided into a morning session, designed to measure those qualities of mind found to be important in the successful study of law, and the afternoon session which tests writing ability and general background. Separate scores will be reported for each test.

Complete information about the test and its administration is contained in the Bulletin of Information and Registration Form for 1967-68 which may be picked up at the University of Montana Law School. Applications for admission to the Law School close June 1.
